

Bankruptcy Questionnaire

Bankruptcy is a right provided by law to people who are in debt and in need of a fresh start. Bankruptcy will discharge many of your debts and you will not have to pay them, except that mortgages and other liens may still need to be paid if you want to keep the secured property.

The law allows you to keep some money and most types of necessary property in bankruptcy. To receive this protection, it is necessary that you list all items asked for in the following questions: if you do not list an item, that item will not be protected in bankruptcy.

You must also list everyone to whom you owe money. If you leave out one of your creditors, you may have to pay the money owed to that creditor or you may lose your right to a bankruptcy discharge. It may also be considered a crime if you intentionally give false information or leave out information.

If you have any questions about whether you can keep certain property or whether you should list a debt, write that question down and remember to ask me. I know this questionnaire is long. Preparing your bankruptcy papers properly takes a significant amount of time and a great deal of information. If we work together to do so, we can protect your family from great hardship and give you the new start the law intends you to have.

There is a filing fee of $335 which must be paid to the court in chapter 7 cases, and $310 if your case is filed under chapter 13.

You must also receive budget and credit counseling from an approved credit counseling agency within 180 days before your case is filed. It is usually a good idea for you to meet with me before you receive the credit counseling. You should fill out this questionnaire before meeting with the credit counseling agency and refer to it as needed. You will need to get from the agency a certificate showing that you received the counseling before your bankruptcy case was filed, unless the agency provides the certificate to me directly.

After your case is filed, you will need to attend a meeting with the bankruptcy trustee and you may have to appear at a court hearing. Before the court will give you a discharge, you must also complete an approved course in personal finances. This course will take approximately two hours to complete. We will give you a list of organizations that provide approved courses. In a chapter 7 case, you should sign up for the course soon after your case is filed. If you file a chapter 13 case, I will discuss with you later when you should take the course.

(1) Fill out every question on all of the pages. Wherever you are given a choice of YES or NO on these forms, check either YES or NO, whichever is correct. Please fill out these pages as well as you can. I will help with any questions you don't understand.

(2) Write clearly or typewrite your answers.

(3) Wherever the name of a person or firm is asked for, give the full address. Make the address accurate. Your discharge from each debt depends upon your giving a complete and correct address.

(4) If you do not know the exact amount you owe, fill in a HIGH estimate. Do not leave the amount blank and do not say "don't know." If you dispute owing a debt or the amount claimed, still list the debt and note that it is disputed.

(5) Wherever you need more room, turn the page over and put the information on the back together with the number of the question.

(6) List every creditor and everybody that has had anything to do with your debts, including cosigners. Please include accurate account numbers. If a bill you owe has been sent to a collection agency or any attorney, list both the person you originally owed and the collection agency or any attorney, giving the full address of each. If the collection agency has an attorney, list the person you originally owed, the collection agency, and the attorney, giving the full address of each.

(7) Whenever a question asks you to be prepared to give details, gather all papers concerning the matter, including bills and collection letters, and bring them with you when you return this form. In any event, be sure to bring with you the following items (unless they don't apply to you):

(a) Copy of your picture identification card and Social Security card or other document containing your social security number;

(b) Deeds and mortgages on your house or other real estate, including most recent mortgage statement on each property;

(c) Any insurance policies;

(d) Any papers relating to past bankruptcies you or your spouse have filed or that concerned any of your property, including chapter 13 cases;

(e) Copies of your tax returns for the past four years;

(f) Copies of your pay check stubs for the last six months (and you should keep all pay stubs you receive until your bankruptcy case is over), including any Social Security or Disability payments.

(g) Copies of your last three statements for each bank, credit union, and investment or brokerage account, and copies of statements for any retirement or savings accounts, including IRAs, Roth IRAs, education IRAs, 401(k)s, tuition credit programs and medical savings plans (and you should keep the first bank statement you receive after your case is filed as we may need to provide it to the trustee);

(h) Legal papers, lawsuits, eviction notices, divorce papers, separation agreements, alimony orders, and child support orders;

(i) Any appraisals or tax assessment papers;

(j) Any other papers you have concerning any of your debts;

(k) Any lease or installment sale (“lease purchase” or “rent-to-own”) agreements for housing (apartment, house, mobile home) or other property (cars, televisions, etc.) that you have signed and that are still in effect or not fully paid; and

(l) Any documents showing that someone else regularly contributes to your household expenses.
